

Unique Custom Structures

35,000 square feet covered music facility

14,000 square feet covered music facility

Curved bridge cover

Restaurant patio cover, a modular system

Tensile structures offer unique opportunities to a project. The organic shapes and structural intergrity offers an inherent honest aesthetic. Tensile structures often become the focal point of a project.

A Form Architecture pc understands the potential of tensile structures, our designs range from small accent pieces complementing architecture to the tensile structure being Architecture.

Our professional services include architectural design with intergrated consulting structural engineering. The professional design and documentation follows traditions phases of project development, including bidding and negotiation with potential specialty contractors or fabricators..

A Form Architecture often works as a “Tensile Design Consultants” to Architects, Engineers, General Contractors, Tensile Fabricators and Manufactures. Our expertise in this area of Architecture is comprehensive in all facets of developing and executing a Tensile Structure.